Prerequisite	A course mark of 50% or higher in Social Studies 9
Required Materials & Resources	Textbook: Living in a Globalized World
Course Overview Students will explore historical aspects of globalization as well as the effects of globalization on lands, cultures, human rights and quality of life. Students will explore the relationships among globalization, citizenship and identity. The infusion of multiple perspectives will allow students to examine the effects of globalization on peoples in Canada and other locations, including the impact on Aboriginal and Francophone communities. Students will develop skills to respond to issues emerging in an increasingly globalized world.
Key Issue	Key Outcome
To what extent should we embrace globalization?	Students will understand, assess and respond to the complexities of globalization.
Related Issues	General Outcomes
1. Should globalization shape identity?	Students will explore the impacts of globalization on their lives.
2. Should people in Canada respond to the legacies of historical globalization?	Students will understand the effects of historical globalization on Indigenous and non-Indigenous peoples.
3. Does globalization contribute to sustainable prosperity for all people?	Students will understand economic, environmental and other impacts of globalization.
4. Should I, as a citizen, respond to globalization	Students will examine their roles and responsibilities in a globalizing world.
Assessment	The student's grade will be calculated based on the following: Course Weightings Major Assessments - 35% Assignments - 20% Quizzes - 25% Final Summative Assessment - 20% Alternative Education does not publish report cards. Parents and students are encouraged to keep up to date on PowerSchool and contact their teacher if there are any issues.
Important Note Regarding Assessment	A wide range of assessment information is used in the development of a student's final grade. In Edmonton Catholic Schools, individualized assessments provide specific information regarding student progress and overall performance in class. Assessment may vary from student to student, differentiating for various student needs. It should also be noted that not all assignments are used to determine the final grade, and that scale factors may have been used to determine the weight of individual assignments.
